THE motor cycle "cop" is not always to be avoided, or must be always met with fear and shivery legs.

Sometimes it happens that he is proved to be versatile and possessed of a dual personality, a real fairy godmother to wit. Can you imagine the metamorphosis?

On the boulevard, near Turner park, a few days ago a charming little maiden and her electric car were moving blithely along.

The car was a very good looking one, copenhagen blue, large and roomy, upholstered in dove grey, red spokes in the wheels. The occupant, just as good looking, becomingly gowned in Copenhagen blue suit to match car. The romantic ensemble enough to attract all gaze.

All goes beautifully along, when "Bingo!" something happens! The car makes a sudden jerk and stands dead still.

The little occupant, after much tugging, is bewildered as to just what to do, when up comes Mr. Motor Cycle Cop, springs from his seat and deftly fixes the offending machine. The little lady showers the officer with smiles of pleased surprise and he, blushing gayly, goes on his way, the true hero.

Lecture This Evening.

Mrs. Anthony Merrill gave her lecture on "Modern Dramatic Theories" this morning at the home of Mrs. Walter Page. After her lecture she read "Drake," a play by Lewis N. Parker. This evening at 8:30 o'clock Mrs. Merrill will deliver her lecture on the "Idealist" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers and read the play "Across the Border," by Budell Marie Dix. An invitation to this evening's lecture is extended to all who are interested. The next lecture will be given Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Louis C. Nash.

Literature Department Meets.

One of the large affairs of today was the luncheon given by the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club at the home of Mrs. W. S. Heller. An attractive musical program was given by Mrs. Porter Garbutt, Miss Ruth Thompson and Mrs. Bradner.

The special guests of honor were the executive committee of the Woman's club, Mrs. A. H. Peterson of Aurora, state president of the Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. Paul of St. Paul, the vice president, both of whom are here to attend the Second district meeting at Benson Thursday. Mrs. Anthony French Merrill of Chicago and Mrs. C. E. Martin were also among the invited guests. Mrs. C. H. Mullen is leader of the department. Forty guests were present.

Hofmann-Hitch Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Etie Hitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hitch of Bensonhurst, and Mr. Alphonse Hofmann took place Wednesday, April 28, at 9 o'clock a. m. at St. Mary Magdalen church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Finney in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride wore a gown of white satin mesalaine, trimmed with lace and pearls. The skirt was box pleated, inset with orange blossoms. The tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orange blossoms and seranomis sent from relatives in Los Angeles. The bride's only ornament was a cameo locket, an heirloom of the family.

Miss Clara Hofmann, niece of the groom, and Mr. Ed Moriarty, were the attendants. The bridesmaid was gowned in white embroidered voile made over yellow silk. She wore a picture hat, gloves and slippers to match, and carried a bouquet of Mrs. Ward's roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to thirty guests at the home of the bride's parents. The house was decorated in pink and white roses and pink-shaded raffles.

Mr. and Mrs. Hofmann will be at home at 404 North Twenty-ninth street.

At Prairie Park

The Prairie Park club gave its last week-end assembly dancing party of the 1914-1915 season at their club home Saturday evening. The club rooms were tastefully decorated in the club's colors, green and white, and the favors were white roses. A short talk was made by the president, Mr. B. G. King about seventy-five couples were present. This closes the social activities of the club for the season with the exception of the White club, which will continue for at least thirty days more. The 1915-1916 season will open with a dancing party on Saturday evening, September 12. The annual election of officers will take place at the business meeting in August. The officers for the last season were B. G. King, president; E. C. Conley vice president; Louis Nelson, secretary and treasurer; C. C. Haynes, George W. Gardner and D. K. Smith, directors.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. M. J. Jaiser was the guest of honor at a surprise party given Friday evening at her home. The evening was spent in games. Those present were: Messrs. and Madames—G. J. Jaiser, George Fahrbruch, G. J. Jaiser, M. J. Jaiser.

Rummy Club Party.

Mrs. Frank O. Browe entertained the members of the Rummy club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Three tables were placed for the game and the prizes were awarded to Mesdames E. H. Oaks, Walter Mookamer and Alex Jeter. The guests of the club were Mrs. J. S. Ziptel and Mrs. G. C. Winterston. The next regular meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. P. Mehrens. Friday evening of this week the club will give an evening party in honor of the husbands of the members. The members include: Madames—P. Mehrens, N. A. Smith, W. P. Loree, Alex Jeter, Frank B. Heston, M. M. Kline, D. E. Loveloy, Frank O. Browe, H. E. Newton, Walter Mookamer, J. W. Road, E. H. Oaks.

Sermo Club Entertains.

The Sermo Literary club was entertained at 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Hess. The table centerpiece was of yellow tulips. The rooms were decorated throughout with American Beauty roses and red tulips. After the luncheon Mrs. G. A. Bernard

Fashion Hint

By LA RACONTEUSE.

The quaintness of our grandmothers is expressed in the frock of white net, with its skirt of many ruffles suggesting the old-time crinoline. The bodice, however, is built on the lines of a bolero, the bottom finished with a band of fine embroidery, but is given a touch of quaintness by the puffed elbow-length sleeves and low, round neck. Narrow black velvet edges the many ruffles, and a wide knotted streamer of velvet descends from the wide brimmed hat.

WOMEN TO TAKE THE STUMP

Many Speakers Thursday Night to Urge Women for the Board of Public Welfare.

JUDGE SUTTON WILL SPEAK

The greatest array of forensic talent ever displayed at one and the same meeting promises to be set forth Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Young Women's Christian association auditorium, when the "outs" will tell where they stand with regard to placing women on the proposed board of public welfare. The meeting is being launched by Mrs. S. A. Casen, president of the Omaha Suffrage association, and is in the nature of a protest against the mayor's refusal to name women on the board.

Besides the six candidates for commissioners Judge A. L. Sutton, Tom Hollister, John Kuhn, I. Conner, L. I. McIlvaine, James Richardson and James Kapinsky will give talks.

One Minute Speeches.

One-minute speeches will be made by the following women: Miss Blanche Van Kuren, Miss Frances Graves, Miss Ben Randall, Miss Marie Hones, and Madames: George W. Covell, Harriet MacMurphy, E. H. Biras, E. B. Roof, F. J. Tucker, J. T. Brillhart, Philip Potter, H. H. Genay, Halleck Rose, C. S. Hartwick, F. D. Weed, Ida Gentry, Dr. Olga Shanny, H. I. Morrow, Carrie D. Scott, D. B. Gross, Dr. Jennie Callahan, C. R. Roberla, L. A. Steere, F. A. Pollnitzer, E. G. McMillan, A. C. Anderson.

Ornithologists to Meet Here Friday

When the Nebraska Society of Ornithologists holds its annual meeting in Omaha Friday and Saturday the members will include a woodland trip in their program. They have invited boys of the Young Men's Christian association, who are interested in birds, to accompany them and receive instruction on the native birds that abound in the woods near the city. Secretary R. S. Flawley of the boys' department says that most of the forty boys enrolled in the association's "efficiency test" club are planning to take advantage of the invitation.

BODY OF MARGARET O'BRIEN BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL

The body of Miss Margaret O'Brien, the well known Omaha woman who died suddenly of appendicitis at Seattle February 21, has been brought to Omaha and will be buried Saturday morning. A brother, Moses P. O'Brien, accompanied the body, and he will make his home here. Interment will be private and will be conducted by Father McCarthy at Holy Sepulcher cemetery. Friends who desire to view the body may do so at the Healey undertaking parlors between now and Saturday, the brother states.

Date Set by Women for Launching State Prohibition Move

The campaign for state-wide prohibition will be launched in Omaha Sunday, May 16, with special services and prayers in many of the churches. Over 500 local members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will circulate petitions since it is planned to submit the question to voters by the initiative and referendum method.

The Omaha Woman's Christian Temperance union met Wednesday afternoon to arrange for the circulation of petitions. The campaign committee of Douglas county is headed by Mrs. W. G. Whitmore of Valley and a committee composed of the presidents of each temperance society in the county.

Mrs. N. J. McKittrick, president of the Omaha union says the women have many more signatures than are required to make the petition work effective. Mrs. W. T. Graham anticipates that the Billy Sunday meetings in the fall will give a powerful impetus to the prohibition campaign.

DENISON OMAHA DELEGATE TO Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

General Secretary E. F. Denison of the Young Men's Christian association will leave for the Pacific coast May 13 to attend the annual conference of employed officers, to be held at Pacific Grove, Cal., May 19-20. He is chairman of the important committee having general charge of the program at the conference sessions.
